

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Attorney-Advisor

MR. JOSHUA S. GOLD

Joshua Gold is an Attorney-Advisor in HUD's Fort Worth Regional Office. Mr. Gold provides legal advice on FHA-insured multifamily and healthcare transactions, assisted housing projects, and asset management matters. Mr. Gold is an Expeditor and national resource for the RAD program. Mr. Gold returned to Texas two years ago, after spending four years in HUD's Atlanta Regional Office.

Mr. Gold's service in the federal government extends beyond providing HUD legal advice. Mr. Gold founded and ran HUD's Under Five Atlanta chapter, organizing field trips, training, and social events that fostered productive work relationships and deeper connection with HUD's mission. Over the past three years, Mr. Gold has assisted FEMA, USDA, and local governments with disaster response and recovery, including working at the Joint Field Office following Hurricane Matthew and Hurricane Harvey. As a member of OPM's Federal Coaching Network and HUD's Coaching Cadre, Mr. Gold works one-on-one with supervisors and non-supervisory employees to identify their core values, cultivate their highest talents, and better serve their agency's mission.

Mr. Gold has a strong commitment to the Dallas-Fort Worth FEB. This past year, Mr. Gold served as both a mentor and a mentee with the FEB's mentorship program. As a Mediator with the FEB's Cadre of Shared Neutrals, Mr. Gold provides well-regarded dispute resolution services to various federal agencies. Mr. Gold is a member of the 2019/2020 Leadership FEB Cohort and is proud to serve on the Strategic Planning Committee.

Mr. Gold's undergraduate degree is from The George Washington University and his law degree is from The University of Texas at Austin.