On July 30, 2022, the United States conducted a counterterrorism strike in Kabul, Afghanistan, killing the overall leader of global terrorist network Al-Qa'ida.

As a precautionary measure, effective immediately and until further notice, FPS will implement Operation Resilient Protection VIII (ORP VIII). This operation focuses on reducing risks associated with six Interagency Security Committee (ISC) undesirable events: ballistic attacks, explosives, assault, unauthorized entry, vehicle ramming, and civil disturbance.

Regional Directors will provide enhanced protection and increased presence at identified high priority Federal facilities. This includes, implementing integrated law enforcement, physical security, technical countermeasures, and intelligence activities based on threat analyses and existing and necessary levels of protection.

If You See Something, Say Something® Report suspicious activity to local law enforcement or call 911. To report any non-emergency suspicious activity within a federal building, call the FPS National Toll-Free Number at: 1-877-437-7411.

Please contact your FPS Regional Leadership with any questions, comments or concerns you may have.
